

Robin F Jordan MA, Chartered CCIPD

Professionally qualified and highly experienced management and human resources consultant who :

- specialises in resolving complex human resource issues within client organisations
 - has a clear understanding of HR strategy and how it can and should add value to business strategy.
 - has additional experience as non-executive director and chairman both at board and board sub-committee level.
-

Competences and Experience

- Significant public, private, voluntary and not-for-profit sector experience - as line manager, consultant, facilitator, non-executive director and chairman.
- Expert in human resource issues - particularly organisation development, performance management, job evaluation and pay.
- Experienced also in governance, business planning, marketing, computing and finance.
- Worked with many different types of businesses including family, partnership, head office, professional institute, educational, multi-national, voluntary, central and local government, NDPB's, etc..
- Highly numerate and highly pc literate.
- Experienced in board and board sub-committee work including Audit Committee.
- Works to the highest professional and ethical standards.
- Understands role and compliance issues associated with Boards of Directors and non-executive directors.
- Has spoken at internal and public conferences, workshops and other events on various HR-related topics.

Management Qualifications

- Chartered Companion of The Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CCIPD).
- Fellow of The Institute of Business Consultancy (FIBC).
- Master of Arts Economics/Maths - The University of Edinburgh (MA).

Other Roles

2007 – 2013	Chairman of Nominations Committee	Chartered Insurance Institute
2002 – 2012	Assessor for Ministerial Public Appointments in Scotland	Commissioner for Public Appointments in Scotland
2003 – 2009	Board Chairman	Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development.

Contact Details

Office : +44 (0) 1458-850368
 email : robin.jordan@rja.co.uk